

Cookie policy

In accordance with Section 109(8) of Act No. 452/2021 Coll. on Electronic Communications, we would like to inform you about the policy on the use of cookies by Wealth Effect Management o.c.p., a.s., which relates to your activity on our website www.wem.sk.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files that a website saves on your computer or mobile device when you visit the website. When you visit the website, you will be prompted to accept or decline cookies.

What types of cookies do we use?

Our website uses technical and analytical cookies.

Technical cookies are essential for the operation and enable the basic functioning of our website as well as secure access to it. Without these cookies, our website cannot function properly and therefore your consent is not required.

Analytical cookies collect information about how the website is used so that we can better tailor it to your preferences and needs. This data is not shared with third parties and is collected anonymously. Your consent is required to store analytics cookies.

Our website also uses Google Analytics from Google. These cookies allow us to obtain and collect statistical data about visitors to the website and are not used to personally identify visitors to this website.

As our website may also store content from other websites, such as images or text, your data may be stored by these other websites in addition to Google:

- doubleclick.net
- facebook.com

How can I change my cookie settings?

You can accept or reject cookies by selecting the appropriate settings for your web browser. You can delete any cookies already stored on your computer or mobile device, and you can set your web browser to prevent them from being stored.

As for the cookies used by our website, you can change these at any time according to your preferences on the website in the "Cookie settings" section.

Cookies and privacy

Cookies are not automatically associated with the identity of any natural or legal person. By giving your consent to the storage of information stored on your computer or mobile device, your identity is not automatically determined. The processing of your personal data is carried out in accordance with the terms set out in the document "Information on personal data processing", which is available on our website.
